Autumn Retreat 2012: Ultimate Stewardship

10/10/12 (2 pm) – 10/12/12 (12 pm) (EDT)

Stewardship is a state of being in which all life decisions are carefully and responsibly made using wisdom. Ultimate Stewardship is doing so in a deliberate and purposeful order. This order maximizes one's ability to create from the spiritual realm and to live a masterpiece life.

The greater your stewardship towards anything, the more you will receive. By managing your energy more effectively, you will find more energy. Steward your time more efficiently and you will become a master of time management. Honor your relationships and you will have a greater quantity and quality of people with whom you share your life. These principals obviously extend to money management as well, as fiscal responsibility will result in earning and keeping more money.

Join Steve D'Annunzio at an exclusive retreat for successful professionals and entrepreneurs like you. Your tuition covers lodging, transportation to/from the Rochester Airport, evening dinners, course materials, and masterful coaching for three transformative days.
